OUTREACH

The call to help the Ukrainian people was heard at St. Martha's church. As of March 20th, $12,960 has been donated by Parishioners for the Episcopal Relief and Development Ukraine Crisis Response Fund. With Outreach donating another $3,000, the total is $15,960.

Thank you for your donations to Outreach Projects. Outreach shopped and delivered $381.00 worth of needed canned food items to IRSD Pantry and Union Wesley Methodist Pantry.

Volunteers needed for after school program at The Hope Center for students ages 12-18. Inservice training for volunteers on Tuesday, March 29 from 6 pm - 8 pm at The Hope Center. For more information contact Sue Allenspach at (302) 245-5743.

Community Food Pantry (Salem United Methodist) is looking for volunteers on Friday, April 15 to help bag and prepare food for distribution to less fortunate families on April 16. Call Joyce Dennis (302-732-6565) or Myra bare (302-732-9402) if you can help.

EASTER FLOWERS

Sign up forms are now available. Upon completion, please place them in the basket in front of the office. Checks should be payable to "St. Martha's" with flower fund in the memo. Plants costs between $15 & $20, but any gift is appreciated. If you are not able to come to church, please call or email your request to Jaclyn at 539-7444 or admin@stmarthasbethanybeach.org, and mail your check to the church. The deadline for submissions is Palm Sunday. Flowers will stay up for two weeks. Those who want the flowers can pick them up after the 10 am service on April 24th.

Please give by mail or website donate button
